FAMILY BIBLES

01/01/2023

Shipping cost varies, depending on quantities and destination. Please contact the DFCF for an individual offer before placing your order.

Detailed family history bibles by Thomas J. Pucher covering all the events that happened between the immigration of the respective families in the Tuscany Valley in the 19th Century and the beginning of the plot (1981).

The source for any information (dates of births, deaths etc.) is primarily the show as it was aired (especially dialog and props) and secondly the scripts and other production materials. In case of any contradictions over the series' nine-year run, means of interpreting and construing the dialog were used to straighten out the problems; any interpretation made is based on comparing all the relevant facts and making choices based on reasoning.
